

RESPONSE TO ART POEM

Name _____

Giving 0 points is an option-no evidence, no credit.

Criteria	1 point Needs improvement	2.5 points Getting there	3.5 points Meets expectations	4 points Exceeds expectations	Total Points
Quality of content	The poem did not have a strong and specific focus on the artwork. It would be hard to describe or identify the writer's voice.	Some mention of the artwork is evident and its meaning to the writer was shown, but the ideas are general. The writer's voice comes and goes.	The poem was about thoughts and feelings the artwork evoked. It gave the reader a clear picture of the artwork and its meaning to the writer throughout. There were plenty of good, specific ideas, and the writer's voice is evident.	The poem was written cleverly and creatively with lots of great, specific ideas. It let the reader know the writer's thoughts and feelings about the artwork in a unique, surprising way. The poem did not rely on clichés. The writer's voice, attitude, and style permeate the poem.	_____ x 4 = _____points
Required elements	Two or more required elements were missing.	One required element was missing.	All required elements were present.	The poem went beyond the minimum of 2 sound devices, 2 examples of imagery, and 2 uses of figurative language. A copy of the artwork is included.	_____ x 3 = _____points
Conventions	Errors interfered with the reader's understanding.	The report had a number of errors and/or could confuse the reader.	The report had a few, minor errors that did not interfere with the reader's understanding.	The poem had zero errors in spelling, structure, punctuation, grammar, or diction.	_____ x 2 = _____points

TOTAL SCORE _____ / 36 = _____%