

8th Grade Newsletter – 10.22.20

Greetings,

We have a number of news items to share this week.

1. Tomorrow is a chance for students to sleep in, as there is no school on October 23.
2. Next Thursday, October 29 is a spirit wear day.
3. Students are not permitted to wear any smart watches that can receive notifications during the school day. Beginning Monday, students who wear these devices are subject to citations.
4. 8th grade will celebrate Halloween on Friday, October 30. Students may dress in orange and black (no leggings). There will be a half day of classes followed by special lunch (students should bring a drink). Following lunch, we will show a Halloween movie and head into the weekend with a pep rally. Students may bring a snack from the approved snack list to enjoy during the movie.
5. Tuesday, October 2 is WEAR PINK FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS DAY! Students may bring in a $2 donation (or more) in order to wear a pink shirt/accessory with their uniform bottoms. All proceeds will benefit breast cancer research.
6. Trimester 1 ends in two weeks on Friday, November 6. Students should check with teachers about any missing work, questions, or concerns.
7. Report cards will be distributed on Friday, November 13.
8. Fall conferences have been rescheduled for November 23 and 24. Conferences will be virtual and scheduled online.
9. There will be a half day of asynchronous classes on November 23 and no classes on November 24.

Enjoy the fall weekend!
